

Flatiron BID annual meeting

A review of the past year, projections for the future and the election of directors will be among the highlights of the third annual meeting of the Flatiron/23rd Street Partnership BID, scheduled for Thursday, June 4, at the Baruch College Vertical Campus Conference Center.

The Center is at 55 Lexington Avenue, at 24th Street, and the meeting will be in Room 14-220 on the 14th floor, with registration and a complimentary continental breakfast beginning at 8 a.m. The meeting is expected to end by 10 a.m.

An RSVP is required and all BID members, including property owners, commercial tenants and residents, should register prior to the meeting so they can vote for directors.

In addition to its outstanding service award, which will be presented for the third consecutive year, the BID will introduce a Chairman's Award, given to a board member who has shown outstanding qualities of leadership, commitment and dedication.

A second new honor, the Partnership Award, will be given to an individual, business or organization that has demonstrated an outstanding commitment to the BID or the community at large.

To register, call (212) 741-2323.

Tilden Democratic Club meeting

Members of the Samuel J. Tilden Democratic Club will hold their next meeting on Monday, May 18 at the Seafarers & International House, 123 East 15th Street. This will be a candidate endorsement meeting and the club will hear from Council Members Dan Garodnick and Rosie Mendez as well as mayoral candidates William C. Thompson and Tony Avella. Only members in good standing may vote.

On Sunday, June 14, Tilden will hold its annual street fair. The club booth will be located in front of 330 Third Avenue and 24th Street.
